3
4 Defendants, Counter-Claimants and Third Party Complainants DICK/MORGANTI, DICK 5 CORPORATION, THE MORGANTI GROUP, AMERICAN CASUALTY COMPANY OF 6 READING, PA and NATIONAL UNION FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY OF PITTSBURGH,
7 PA (“D/M”) and Plaintiff WEBCOR CONSTRUCTION, INC. dba WEBCOR BUILDERS
8 (“Webcor”) respectfully submit this Joint Case Management Statement pursuant to Civil 9 Rule 16-10(d).

10 Since the August 29, 2008 conference, D/M and its subcontractors have been working 11 actively to finalize the remaining components of the claims arising out of the San Francisco 12 Federal Building Project (“Project”), in advance of submission to the contracting officer for the 13 General Services Administration (“GSA”). These efforts have included numerous conference
14 calls and meetings between D/M, on the one hand, and Webcor, Rosendin, Marelich, 15 Permasteelisa, ISEC and T&M, on the other.

16 In addition, D/M’s lead counsel in the appeals before the Civilian Board of Contract 17 Appeals (“CBCA”) (Barbara Werther from Thelen LLP’s Washington D.C. office), and the 18 Assistant General Counsel for Dick Corporation (Michael Ambroso) recently met with counsel for 19 the GSA who will be handling the appeals before the CBCA. This group of attorneys discussed 20 how best to schedule the case, with an emphasis on alternative dispute resolution. These 21 discussions will continue but there is agreement in concept that the disputes arising out of the 22 project are too large and complex to have a single ADR schedule apply to the whole. There is 23 agreement that the case should be mediated step-by-step. D/M will be in contact over the next 30 24 days with its subcontractors concerning the details of these “step” mediations.

25 At the August 29, 2008 conference, the issue arose concerning Performance Contracting 26 Inc.’s (“PCI”) production of job cost accounting information. As this is an issue that is still being 27 discussed between counsel for D/M and PCI, only a brief report will be made here. On 28 September 24, 2008, PCI produced additional documentation. D/M believes that this additional

1 documentation does not contain the detail requested, is nothing more than what PCI produced in 2 2007 and is insufficient. PCI maintains that what it provided was what D/M requested.
3 Notwithstanding these differences, PCI has agreed to take under advisement D/M's request for 4 more detailed information. D/M continues to believe that this additional information is essential
5 to have in order to understand and ultimately certify PCI's claim so that it can be passed onto the 6 GSA and to the CBCA.

7 Under the circumstances, four of the five active sets of parties in this case (D/M, Webcor, 8 Rosendin Electric, Inc., and Permasteelisa) respectfully suggest that the October 10, 2008 case 9 management conference be continued for 30 to 45 days. PCI does not join in the request to 10 continue the case management conference.
